

Distinguished Service Award

NOMINATION FORM

The Financial Advice Association of Australia's Distinguished Service Award (DSA), including the Michael Murphy Award, as per the Member Regulations, recognises:

- Exceptional contribution to the work of the FAAA, such as through voluntary service to FAAA Chapters, Communities, committees and taskforces;
- or
- Exceptional contribution to enhancing the good reputation and standing of the profession, and to the common good of the profession.

Who is eligible

- FAAA Members who have not previously received a DSA; and
- Persons with at least three years' uninterrupted service on the FAAA Board, a Committee, a Taskforce or Community / Chapter Committee; or
- Non-members who have not previously received a DSA.

All honorary awards reflect the Professional Code standards, particularly that recipient members must enhance the good reputation of the profession in their dealings with other members and with the FAAA.

Who may nominate

- FAAA Members.
- FAAA Board directors.
- FAAA Community/Chapter committee members.
- FAAA senior managers

Self nominations are not permitted.

Who decides

Nominations for the FAAA DSA will be considered by the FAAA Board.

Please be aware that the FAAA DSAs are honorary, and as such the FAAA Board has the ability to appoint and withdraw an honorary award at any time.
